Mr. Mathews called up the series of resolutions submitted by him on the 18th instant, (page 470);

Pending the second reading of which,

On motion of Mr. Mathews,

The following was adopted as a substitute for the series:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That we feel it to be, not more an act of duty than of profound satisfaction, to express for ourselves, and in behalf of the people whose representatives we are, our heartfelt thanks to each and all of those gallant defenders of the Constitution and Laws of the United States, by land and sea, who have recently, by their unsurpassed heroism, augmented the glory of American citizenship, and, through the sublime lessons of victories won by fortitude and courage, above all praise, have assured us, beyond peradventure, that our government is established in the hearts of the masses, securely resting upon the solid foundations of virtue and patriotism."

The resolution was then read the second time, and passed by yeas and nays, as follow:
